Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 30 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Unsettled, windy and wet at times.

This Evening and Tonight:
Remaining generally overcast with showers continuing this evening, these likely merging into longer spells of rain and becoming heavy at times overnight. Winds easing slightly but remaining breezy. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Friday:
Early rain clearing to give a bright but breezy day. Blustery showers will push in from the west through the day, these perhaps turning heavy in places. Feeling cool. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
An unsettled spell with heavy rain and strong winds likely through Saturday. Turning showery into Sunday and Monday, with strong winds easing into the start of the week.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.